ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,

VICTORIA, B.C., April 26th, 1938.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "An Act respecting Pound Districts," it is enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council made public by notice in The British Columbia Gazette, constitute any part of the Province of British Columbia not within the limits of a municipality into a pound district:

And whereas under the provisions of this Act application has been made by proprietors of land in the North Saanich Land District to constitute as a pound district all that portion of land, the boundaries of which may be described more particularly as follows: Sections 6, 7, 8, and 9, Ranges 1, 2, and 3 west; Sections 10 and 11, Ranges 1 and 2 west; Sections 12, 13, and 14, Range 1 west; Section 12, Range 1 east, and those portions of Sections 13 and 14, Range 1 east, lying west of Wilson Road:

And whereas notice of intention to constitute such part of the Province a pound district was given in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and no objection has been made by any proprietor within the proposed pound district:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture and under the provisions of the "Pound District Act," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the above-described area be constituted a pound district.

2347-my5 G. M. WEIR,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

USE AND STORAGE.

TAKE NOTICE that Lillooet Power, Water, and Light Company, Limited, whose address is Lillooet, B.C., will apply for a licence to take and use 200 cubic feet per second and to store 3,500,000 cubic feet of water out of Cayoosh Creek, which flows easterly and drains into Fraser River about 1 mile southerly from Lillooet Post Office.

The storage-dam will be located at the top of the falls on Lot 3620. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 80 acre-feet, and it will flood about 8 acres of land.

The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about the top of the falls on Lot 3620, Lillooet District, and will be used for power purpose upon the land described as District Lot 3621, Lillooet District.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 25th day of April, 1938. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the “Water Act” will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Clinton, B.C.

Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

Description of the territory within which its powers in respect of the undertaking are to be exercised is: All the territory within a distance of 2 miles from the Fraser River on both sides and extending from the junction of Cayoosh Creek with the Fraser River for a distance of 10 miles down the river and 5 miles up the river.

The petition for approval of the undertaking will be heard in the office of the Water Board at a date to be fixed by the Comptroller, and any interested person may file an objection thereto in the office of the Comptroller or of the Water Recorder.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(13.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of lumber and woodenware, and to buy, own, hold, sell, and deal in timber limits, timber lands and logs, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture articles in the making of which timber or wood is required or can be utilized:

(14.) To manufacture and produce, trade, and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(15.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate, by way of mortgage, or upon any marketable security:

(16.) To acquire the good-will of any business, and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(17.) To promote or form, or assist in the promotion or formation, of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company, or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies' businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and further to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(18.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and, subject to the provisions of the "Insurance Act" of the Province of British Columbia, to give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority; provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares, or in loans upon the security thereof:

(19.) Generally to carry on any other business (except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph, and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause, the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company:

(20.) To apply for in the name of the Company or other corporation or person, promote, support, and obtain, in Canada or elsewhere in the world, from any Government or other authority, any Act of Parliament, charter, Provincial or other order, concessions, grants from the Government, or authorization for enabling the Company or any other corporation or person to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company.

(b.) To construct, lay down, establish, fix, carry out, and maintain all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity, and to light mines, cities, towns, streets, docks, markets, theatres, buildings, and places, both public and private, and to construct, lay down, acquire, fix, carry out, and maintain dams, canals, pipe-lines, conduits, ditches, and any other means now or hereafter known for the conveyance of water:

(c.) To apply for, obtain, hold, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire water, water records, water rights, licences, and franchises:

(d.) To have, take, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and advantages created, provided, and conferred on licensees of water and on power companies by the “Water Act” of the Province of British Columbia or any amendments thereto, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof, or by the laws of any country, state, or Province in which the Company may carry on business:

(e.) To construct, equip, maintain, and operate electrical works and power-houses and works of every nature and description, used or necessary for the diversion, utilization, holding, carrying, or conducting of water or power, including works as defined by the said “Water Act” or any such other Act or laws:

(f.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water for mechanical, industrial, irrigation, power, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used to persons or companies:

(g.) To instal and operate telephone systems, including telephone-lines, stations, toll-offices, exchanges, plants, equipment, wires, cables, and works used or connected therewith or incidental thereto:

(h.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire real property, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of any tenure and of all kinds and descriptions, and any interest therein, and personal property of any and all kinds and descriptions, and any interest therein, and to hold, develop, improve, deal in, manage, rent, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber, exchange, sell, or in any way dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(i.) To maintain and operate warehouses, cold-storage plants, canneries, creameries, or factories for the storing, canning, preserving, manufacturing, or preparing for market of fruits, vegetables, and vegetable products, meats, poultry, fish and animal products, and to buy, sell, and deal in farm produce of all kinds, and whether in the raw state or manufactured or prepared for market or use in any manner:

(j.) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, options and agreements, and all other goods and chattels, personal property and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively, or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases, and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company) to pay for the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up:

(k.) To carry on business as investors, capitalists, financiers, and promoters, and to execute and carry on all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, and other operations, and to carry on the business of promoting, establishing, administering, operating, purchasing, acquiring, disposing of and otherwise dealing in and with financial, commercial, industrial, manufacturing, transportation, agricultural, mining, and other enterprises with a view to profit:

(l.) To enter into partnership or any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, and to lend money to and, subject to the “Insurance Act,” guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or share of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(n.) To promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada or the Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere:

(o.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(p.) None of the preceding subclauses or objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted in reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(e.) To clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream; to deepen channels, remove shoals, or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(f.) To carry on any or all lines of business as manufacturers, producers, merchants, wholesale and retail, importers and exporters, generally without limitation as to class of products and merchandise, and to manufacture, produce, adapt, prepare, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in any materials, articles, or things required in connection with or incidental to such business:

(g.) To carry on the business of manufacturers' agents or representatives, and to act in the capacity of agents for the manufacturers of goods:

(h.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in wooden, paper, corrugated paper, and paper boxes of every kind, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in machinery of all kinds for the purpose of manufacturing paper, corrugated paper, and paper boxes, and to carry on generally the business of manufacturing stationers, printers, and paper-makers, and dealers in goods, wares, and merchandise:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, permit, grant, or otherwise, and to obtain, own, buy, sell, hold, control, lease, assign, exchange, traffic, and deal in lands, concessions, claims, seams, veins, beds, wells, channels, sands, deposits, springs, and sources of supply of every kind and description containing and producing, or believed to contain or to be capable of containing and producing, petroleum, mineral oils, natural gas, oil shales, coal, iron, minerals, and natural products of all kinds, and to prospect for, survey, explore, open, work, develop, and maintain lands, territories, locations, rights, and facilities belonging to or acquired by the Company, or which the Company may desire to acquire, and for these or any other purposes to equip and employ expeditions and commissioners, explorers, experts, and others:

(j.) To carry on business as general contractors, commission, insurance, land, house, rental, general, and financial agents, managers, and brokers, and to engage in any business or transaction with any person, party, corporation, or company:

(k.) To prosecute and execute, directly or by contribution or other assistance, any such or any other undertakings, works, projects, or enterprises in which, or for the prosecution whereof, or on the security whereof, or of any profits or emoluments derivable therefrom, the Company shall have invested money, embarked capital, or engaged its credit:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Dominion, Provincial, municipal, civic, local, or other authorities that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions conferred thereunder:

(m.) To establish, form, promote, or assist in paying the cost of and incidental or preliminary to the formation or establishment of any company or undertaking formed with objects altogether or in part similar to the objects for which the Company is established, and with whom the Company may or may not amalgamate, and to make or concur or assist in making all payments and financial arrangements in relation thereto; to underwrite, subscribe for, purchase, hold, sell, or dispose of shares, stock, obligations, bonds, debentures, or securities in any such company, and to pay any brokerage, commission, indemnities, and legal or other expenses incidental thereto:

(n.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business properties and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and that for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for cash or shares or other securities of the Company:

(o.) To manage, supervise, control, and carry on the business of any company, corporation, or undertaking in which the Company is interested or otherwise, and to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(p.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the conditions, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(q.) To purchase, underwrite, guarantee, subject to the "Insurance Act," the principal and interest of, subscribe, or otherwise acquire and hold and vote upon, the shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of any company, or of any municipal, public, or other authority; and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute any such shares, stocks, bonds, or debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of any company, or of any municipal, public, or other authority; and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute any such shares, stocks, bonds, or obligations amongst the members of the Company in specie:

(r.) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company or corporation whose objects are or include objects similar to any of the objects or purposes of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares, stocks, debentures, or otherwise) of the undertaking with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase for shares (wholly or partly paid up), stock, debentures, or otherwise of shares or stock of this or any such other company or corporation, subject to all liability of this or any such company or corporation as aforesaid, or by any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner:

(s.) To apply for in the name of the Company or other corporation or person, promote, support, and obtain any Act of Parliament, charter, provisional, or other orders, concessions, grant from the Government, or authorization for enabling the Company or any other corporation or person to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient; and to oppose any bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company:

(t.) To raise or borrow and secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to issue at par, or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, either permanent or redeemable and collaterally, grant securities under the "Bank Act," and to secure any or all of the obligations of the Company by trust deed or other deeds, writings, or assurances, and to issue and deposit any securities which the Company has power to issue by way of mortgage to secure any sum less than the nominal amount of such securities, and also by way of security for the performance of any contracts or obligations of the Company:

(u.) To pay all or any of the expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company:

(v.) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, services rendered, or otherwise, and generally to satisfy any payments of or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this or any other company, credited as fully or partly paid up, or of bonds, debentures, or other securities of this or any other company, credited as fully or partly paid up:

(w.) To act as employee, agent, or manager of any person, firm, or corporation with which the Company may be associated or in which it may be interested:

(x.) To establish agencies and branches, and to regulate and discontinue the same, and to procure the Company to be licensed, registered, or otherwise recognized in any foreign country, and to designate any person therein as attorney or representative of the Company with power to represent the Company in all matters according to the laws of such foreign country, and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(y.) The business or purpose of the Company is from time to time to do any one or more of the acts and things herein set forth either as principals, factors, or agents, or in conjunction with others, or for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents, and to hold in the name of others any property which the Company is authorized to acquire; and generally to carry on any business, whether organized or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the properties or rights of the Company; and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, and convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects enumerated herein or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall appear at the time to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company.

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the objects of the Company shall not be restricted by reference to or inference from any other object or the name of the Company or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such manner as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company.

The objects hereinbefore set forth shall be construed so as to widen but not as in any way to restrict or limit any implied powers conferred by section 22 or any other provision of the "Companies Act" and amending Acts.
